

PERSONNEL DOSSIERS

INDIVIDUAL DOSSIERS

List of the collections concerned

The Archives Nationales d'Outre-Mer keeps the dossiers for personnel who have served in the former French colonies. They are sorted into different series or collections for which the reader will find the list below. Part of these inventories is already on-line.

Inventories

Series E XVIIth – XVIIIth Centuries

Devoted to the individual dossiers of colonial, military and civilian personnel of the Ancien Régime (Old Regime from the 15th to 18th Century):

- Before 1760: miscellaneous
- After 1760: real dossiers
- 3rd Category: items from the Litigation Office for the Colonies

In this series there are numerous documents: memoirs, correspondence, diverse records, mortuary notices, legal documents, etc. which are often of great general interest.

A nominal database contains the names mentioned in the inventories of archives on-line. Searching is done by criteria (name, first name, or full text). Only in this series is the digitised document directly accessible on-line by this database:

Nominal database, People and Families IREL (On-line Research Tools)

Series EE, EE II and EE III XIXth –XXth Centuries

The Archives keep more than 190,000 personnel dossiers.

These dossiers are made up of several types of document which may be very special for research:

- diplomas, documents linked to civil status, nomination decrees, establishment, appointment decisions, marks and corresponding assessments, decrees linked to a disciplinary action, service records, correspondence, embarkation and disembarkation notices, and sometimes medical records.

Service records provide information on civil status and indications about the different stages of the administrative career.

Series EE: Modern colonial personnel (end XVIIIth-XIXth Centuries)

having served from the time of the French Revolution to about the 1880s.

Only the inventory for the letter A is accessible on-line (not the dossiers themselves).

Work on this inventory continues and the next letters will be put on-line as progress is made:

Series EE II and EE III: contemporary colonial personnel (XIXth – XXth Century).

Series EE: 1788 articles

Series EE II: 8722 articles

Series EE III: 40 articles

How to carry out the research:

- For all of Series EE, EE II, and EE III write to the ANOM to find out if a dossier exists (do not forget to give accurate information on the person and his career).

Communicability of dossiers:

– 50 years after the last document – EE II and EE III

INDIVIDUAL DOSSIERS

The following series does not include personnel dossiers. It only concerns the individual dossiers of French children with unknown fathers born in Indochina and abandoned or morally forsaken.

Fédération des Œuvres de l'Enfance Française d'Indochine (FOEFI) – Federation of Works for French Children in Indochina 90 APC 1 to 89

The “Jules Brévie Foundation” was created in Indochina in 1939 to supervise the education and placement of abandoned or morally forsaken French children with an unknown father.

It became the “Fondation fédérale eurasienne” in 1946. It was recognised to be of public interest and given the name, “Fédération des Oeuvres de l'Enfance Française d'Indochine” (FOEFI), in 1950.

FOEFI was dissolved in 1983 and its archives given to the overseas territories section of the NA. The dossiers were sent to the ANOM in 1986 during the transfer of archives from the ex. Ministry for the French Overseas Territories.

The collection from FOEFI is made up of 89 boxes.

Boxes 1 to 87 contain 4361 nominal dossiers of Eurasians cared for by the association.

Boxes 88 and 89 bring together the reports of annual general meetings for the period 1950 to 1983 and 9 albums of photographs taken during outings and celebrations, or sent by former FOEFI children concerning personal events (marriage, birth of children, etc.), as well as a dossier containing letters of thanks from pupils sent to Mme Grafeuil, Treasurer of the Federation.

Contents of the dossiers:

- Civil status papers, extracts of judgements on French nationality
- Vaccination certificates, diplomas (originals)
- Correspondence between the pupils and nuns and monks

Communicability of dossiers:

Consultation of dossiers only by interested parties on proof of identity. If the interested party is deceased, his/her descendants must provide his/her death certificate and proof of their relationship.
